LARGEST TURNOUT EVER AS CALLAN PARK OVERWHELMED BY 'NO' VOTES

Petitions Filed To Transfer Schools Here

County Schools Superintendent James Tormey stated today that signed petitions, bearing the names of 13 Daly City residents and 14 South San Francisco home owners, had been given to his office Tuesday at 9 a.m. in a move to transfer the Callan Park Schools from South San Francisco to the Jefferson Elementary and High School Districts.

Tormey stated that the petitions have been given to the County Clerk to verify that the signatures, at least 10 on each sheet, are registered voters. The next step is that the boundary commissioner makes sure that the petitions are correctly within the boundaries outlined.

From there, the petitions will go to both the Board of Supervisors and the District Reorganization Committee simultaneously.

There are two avenues open, the Board of Supervisors may either hold a public hearing or hold an election of people in the allan Park area. "Due to no residents being in Callan Park, the Supervisors will no doubt hold a hearing if all the other formalities are approved," Tormey stated.

The Supervisors have a limit of two weeks to hold the public hearing from the time they receive the petitions, he commented.

Meanwhile, all four school districts will be asked for their recommendation as well as the County District Reorganization Committee. Tormey will watch these closely, he said, and then give his recommendation.

The school districts recommendations are "not covered by law" but they asked for this consideration 10 years ago, and we have complied with their wish since then, Tormey noted.

If the public hearing is held prior to February 1, the redistricting could possibly take place before July of 1961, Tormey concluded.

Heart Seizure

James B. Harbuck, 77 Fairlawn drive, Westlake, was transported to Junipero Serra Hospital by Peninsula Ambulance last Monday at 6:30 p.m. following a heart attack.

Officer Richard Sims said first aid was rendered by central station firemen before Harbuck was brought to the hospital.

MRS. BATTYE'S PURSE TAKEN BY TEENAGER

Mrs. Mary L. Battye, 58, 141 Acton street, wife of the Daly City Personnel Board chairman and former Mayor Mel Battye, was bruised slightly last Wednesday evening when she was knocked to the ground by a 16-year-old who snatched her purse.

The incident occurred at 8 p.m. at Acton and Brunswick streets when the teen-ager grabbed her purse and pulled her to the ground. She was bruised on the right hip and the back of her head from the fall.

Officer James Bergstrom arrested the boy after he ran into an alley at Whittier street. The boy admitted the theft. The California Youth Authority parolee was transported to Hillcrest Juvenile Detention Home.

San Francisco police believe the SF lad may be implicated in a number of purse snatches in that city.

Council, Board Meetings To Be Held This Monday

Regular meetings of the City Council, Jefferson High School and Elementary School Districts will be held this Monday.

The Council meeting will start at 8 p.m. at 75 Wellington avenue.

Jefferson Union High School District trustees will convene at 7:30 p.m. at 375 South Mayfair avenue.

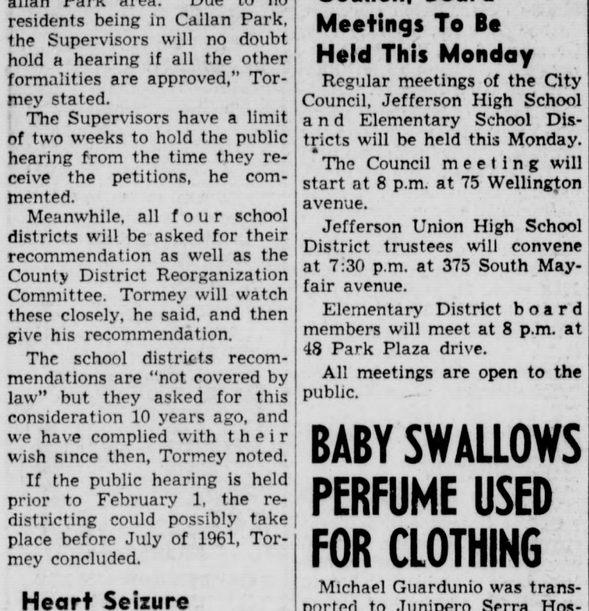
Elementary District board members will meet at 8 p.m. at 48 Park Plaza drive.

All meetings are open to the public.

BABY SWALLOWS PERFUME USED FOR CLOTHING

Michael Guardunio was transported to Junipero Serra Hospital by Officer Jim Sunderland last Wednesday at 3:45 p.m. after the 14-month-old baby swallowed a perfume that is used on clothes.

His mother, Alma, 29, 135 Santa Cruz avenue, notified police of the incident. The mother and child were returned home via police car after a lavage was performed.



A TYPICAL scene that will take place on September 12 when Jefferson Elementary School District children return or start school takes place as Mrs. Delores Sanguinetti receives an "off-to-school" kiss from six-year-old Ricky, a first grader. Five-year-old Mark, who will start kindergarten, and 11-year-old Paul, a sixth grader, are also readying for the school year.

NOVEMBER BALLOT REGISTRATIONS TO BEGIN HERE TODAY

With the general election in November less than three months away, registration of voters is of prime importance to residents in the Daly City, Broadmoor and Colma areas. Over 7,000 qualified voters still remain to be registered before the deadline of September 15.

As was done preceding the primary election, a concentrated drive is planned to make registration available to every qualified voter. Over thirty registrars will be working on door-to-door drives, in their homes and businesses and in supermarkets throughout this area.

It is well to remember that early registration is beneficial to all concerned. Affidavits to register new voters are issued from Redwood City, and last minute registrants on September 15 may face disappointment if supplies are exhausted through a late and large turnout.

Registration booths open at the Mayfair—Broadmoor Shopping Center, Safeway—Junipero Serra boulevard, and Westlake Food Center — Westlake Shopping Center, on Thursday, August 18 and will remain open Thursday through Saturday of each week until September 15. On September 1 a booth will open at the Spotlite Market, Hillside boulevard at Mission street and will follow the same schedule as the other supermarkets.

In addition, these deputy registrars, whose addresses and telephone numbers are listed below, will help in the registration:

COLMA: Mrs. B. V. Lagomarsino, Town Hall, PL 5-6141; Mrs. M. C. Pfeiffer, 130 Garden Lane, PL 6-1437; J. Kent, 210 Village Lane, PL 6-0911; Mrs. M. Zapian, 207 Village Lane, PL 6-4716.

Audience Large But Too Few Planners There

More persons were present at the Daly City Planning Commission meeting last Tuesday evening than were present at the City Council meeting the night before.

Approximately 25 persons were in the audience but not enough of the planners attended the meeting to make a quorum. Only commissioners present were chairman Richard Dwyer and John Schaeffer. Missing were Roy Foster, Tony Masini and Del Gore.

City Engineer Bill Chapman said persons present were there to see the outcome of a variance filed by Harry C. Curusis, of 6767 Mission street, for an apartment house at the corner of Hillside boulevard and Como street and the application for a use permit by Dessie M. Conley, of Santa Rosa, for a rest home at 3280 San Jose avenue.

Chapman noted that these and other items will again be scheduled for September 13 at the 8 p.m. City Hall meeting of the planners.

Missing Teeners Found At Old Army Camp Here

A 14-year-old girl, her 14-year-old boy friend, and a 15-year-old girl friend, who was to be a witness "at a Reno ceremony," were found by Daly City Police last Tuesday after being away from their homes for two nights and three days.

The three youths, all Jefferson High School students, were found at the old Army camp off of Westmoor avenue in the Palisades section of the city. More than five policemen had worked on the case at one time or another before Officers Richard Sims and Phil LaBruzzo came upon the trio.

The policemen spotted three Army dug-outs, two of which were empty. The third was neatly camouflaged with branches and a steel door beyond was locked from the inside. The officers radioed for help and the water department sent a man with a wrecking bar.

As the men tried to open a section of the turret, the trio unlocked the steel door and attempted to escape.

Sims and LaBruzzo caught them and gave them citations to Hillcrest Juvenile Detention Home. Inside the dugout they found two cans of fruit and two blankets. The teenagers had spent the previous night in the back yard of one of the girl's friends' home.

Thirty-Eight Precinct Returns Show Only One Favoring Annexation

"V" usually stands for "victory"—but of the 38 precincts total tally, "V" precinct at 12 Westbrook avenue, Westlake, was the only one to turn in a majority for "Yes" on annexation of Callan Park.

The special referendum annexation vote, bringing out the largest number of voters ever, 10,482, was doomed from the first precinct return to the last.

"No" votes were almost double the amount of "Yes" ballots, 6842 to 3640. There are still 411 absentee ballots to be counted and final figures will be given next Tuesday evening, but for all intents and purposes NO Callan Park resident will live in Daly City.

The 10,482 persons who trekked to the polls brought one of the highest municipal percentage figures also, almost 60 per cent. There are 18,507 registered voters here.

With the Callan Park annexation gone from the local scene, Daly City's boundaries are "more or less" set.

Sideline observers generally believed the vote "would be close"—though they would not state which way before the election. The over-whelming "no" vote came as a surprise in this respect.

Mike Callan stated, "While we are naturally disappointed at the election results, the majority have spoken and we will of course abide by their decision.

"To the hundreds of volunteers who worked so hard for the annexation and the thousands who voted "Yes" we are deeply grateful.

"We will begin construction of Callan Park as an unincorporated area of San Mateo County on or about the first of September. We will begin immediately to re-evaluate the area to determine if it is possible to build the necessary number of homes on larger lots as well as the planned shopping center. If it is possible to include the shopping center, we will do so. If not, we will have to confine the development to a purely residential one.

"As we stated often during the campaign, we are anxious to get speedy cooperation with the school districts involved so that we can begin work on necessary schools as quickly as possible."

JUHSD PROGRAM

1220 Freshmen Expected For Orientation

More than 1220 freshmen from eight different elementary schools are expected to be on hand Thursday, September 1, when the three high schools in the Jefferson Union High School District officially open their doors for the 1960-61 session.

As part of its official instructional program, the district will institute an Orientation Program for all freshmen and new incoming students to the district. This special program is designed to help new students to adjust as well as to minimize the many new problems they may face in changing from one school to another, problems such as enlarged and different physical facilities, new procedures and routines and new learning environments.

Originally introduced at the Jefferson High School as an experimental program two years ago, the results proved so successful that on the recommendation of the Director of Instruction, Dr. John Ivan, the Board of Trustees approved the program as an official unit of the District's instructional program.

Briefly, the Orientation program consists of three phases, (1) a general assembly period for an explanation of the High School, its rules and operation, (2) a small group session ap-

BUDGET SAVINGS GROCERY

MAN HIDES PISTOL FROM VIEW; WALKS AWAY WITH $517 CASH

A "Latin type" man, between 45 and 50-years-old, about 6 feet, one inch, held a pistol hidden from view until he could walk off with $517 from the Budget Savings Grocery, 6001 Mission street, last Friday at 9 p.m.

The suspect, wearing a dark blue tweed coat, brown hat, green sweater and dark rimmed glasses, held a .25 or .32 caliber pistol between himself and the counter so it couldn't be seen from outside.

Walter A. McKean, 26, co-owner of the store, spotted the gun when he came to the counter to serve the man. He started to back up when the gunman 'soothed,' "Now don't get excited. I want all the money put in a sack."

As McKean was taking the money from the register the gunman implored a number of times, "Hurry up." McKean started to leave to get a paper bag when the suspect ordered, "Go down the aisle and don't come back."

McKean later came back to the counter and found a note, in large printing, which stated: "I have a loaded gun and I will shoot you or anybody who does not follow orders. Put all money in paper sack — don't give alarm."

McKean said the robber did not appear nervous although he frequently glanced at the door.

Officer Matthew Murray, who took the report, said a waitress at Rosino's cocktail lounge, 5999 Mission street, related that a man fitting the description had entered at 8:30 p.m., had one drink and then left.

ALVIN, the chipmunk, will be one of the pets entered in the Westlake Pet Parade which will be held between 1:30 and 4 p.m. Friday at the Westlake Court. Holding Alvin is owner Stephen Villalobos, 9, 380 Skyline drive. Alvin isn't quite two years old and Stephen had a tight hold on the frisky youngster.

proximately 25 students to each teacher for a more intimate discussion of special areas such as school schedules, bus transportation, distribution of lockers and program cards for the fall semester. This is followed by a tour of the facilities and an opportunity to visit classrooms and work book lockers. The final phase consists of preregistration and testing of all students not previously registered or tested in the district.

Students will report to the gymnasiums of their respective schools for an official welcome by the principal and his administrative staff. All students living east of Junipero Serra boulevard are to report to Jefferson High School. Those living west of Junipero Serra are to report to Westmoor High school at 8 a.m. Students living in Pacifica and attending Oceana High School are to report to the Westmoor Gymnasium at 1 p.m. Bus transportation will be provided for all students living more than two miles from school. The exact times and pick up points will be announced.

2 Women Report Rape Cases To Local Police

Two women reported separate cases of being raped to Daly City police within a three-hour period last Sunday. Both cases were turned over to Pacifica police for further investigation as the acts were committed there.

A 17-year-old Westlake girl told Officer Al Nicolini she had been the victim of an assault perpetrated by two males.

A 44-year-old San Francisco woman notified Officer Jim Doran that she had been accosted by a 22-year-old San Francisco man. The man was turned over to Pacifica police to relate his story.

Two Injured As Cars Collide Head-on Here

A head-on crash at Skyline boulevard near Westmoor avenue resulted in two persons being injured last Saturday at 1:40 a.m.

Jerry O'Dean Mauldin, 22, 106 San Diego avenue, a mechanic, and his passenger, James Bullis, 40, 175 Turk street, San Francisco, were transported to Junipero Serra Hospital by Officer Ralph Warren.

Officer Robert Crooker cited Billie J. Nelson, 28, 1136 Escalero avenue, Pacifica, a telephone installer, for driving on the wrong side of the highway. Nelson was not injured.

The police said both cars were totally damaged.

Iwo Photographer Involved In Two Vehicle Collision

Joseph J. Rosenthal, photographer for the San Francisco Chronicle who took the nationally renowned picture of the Marine flag raising at Iwo Jima, was involved in a slight auto-injury accident at Alemany and Junipero Serra boulevards last Monday at 9 a.m.

The 48-year-old photographer's car collided with one driven by Raymond J. Kulp, 42, 611 Claridge drive, Pacifica, chief engineer for a baking company. Mrs. Ruth M. Kulp, 51, was transported to Kaiser Hospital by her husband after complaining of a sore neck.

The reporting police officer said Rosenthal's foot slipped from the brake pedal while he was behind the Kulp's car. No citations were given due to the very slow rate of speed and the oddity of the accident.

+ TEEN TALK +

By Joe Bavaresco

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

My next door neighbor is a busy-body. She keeps trying to tell my mother how to raise me. For example, she says I get in too late, I date the wrong boys, and things like that. How can I put a stop to this? My mother looks up to this woman and believes everything she says; and therefore, causes family problems between my mother and me. Won't you please help me. This woman has no children of her own, but keeps butting her nose in our family affairs. What shall I do?

B. T. R.

Dear B.T.R.:

Too many people today feel that they alone know the real way to raise children. What is worse, these people feel secure in judging and passing judgment on teenagers and their activities. The worst part of this is that parents of teenagers are trying to understand their teenage children; and therefore, will listen to anyone who would have a solution their problems.

The thing to do is to sit down with your mother and explain that your behavior is probably no different than any other average teenager, and no outside person should butt into your family problems. In this case, your mother is very wrong in listening to an inexperienced person. She and your father alone should decide what is best for you.

Tell your mother and father that if they feel that you are a problem, they should consult a family counselor or an advice clinic of some sort. They should never ask the advice of a neighbor, especially a neighbor who is obviously a busy-body. Nine times out of 10, she will probably tell every other neighbor on the block. Keep your family problems within your family, not within the city limits.

* * *

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

My girl and I have been going steady for four months and after every date she insists that we go somewhere expensive and flashy to eat. I am a senior in high school and work as an usher in the local theater. I am saving my money for college.

I don't like to say no to her because I love her, but I haven't been able to save any money for college because of all the expensive places I have been taking her. How can I ask her to be satisfied with the simple dates of perhaps a movie and a bit to eat after, or a dance and coffee later. I don't want to hurt her feelings or make her thing I'm cheap skate.

Worried

Dear "Worried":

If the girl you are going steady with really loves you, she will understand. You should explain to her the importance and the expense of your college education. I'm sure she does not realize your situation. I'm also sure that if you sit down quietly with her and explain the fact that you cannot afford to continue going to expensive places regularly she will understand and take it very gracefully.

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy; so at least once a month, you should go some place very nice and special. If she doesn't like the idea and continues asking you to go somewhere that you can't afford, I seriously suggest that you look for another girl.

It may sound cold, but any girl who loves a guy will sacrifice such things for him. If she only uses you to take her to expensive places, drop her; she isn't worth it! A girl is only worth the sacrifices she can make for the guy she loves. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: Teenage love is like the feathers on a peacock, there may be many but they are all beautiful.

Send all problems to:
Joe Bavaresco

'COME ON UP AND SEE THEIR ETCHINGS' AT SF ART MUSEUM

Opening August 25, the San Francisco Museum of Art will present an exhibition of prints by members of the California Society of Etchers. Seventy works representing 55 artists make up the collection.

All print media are shown, including intaglio, woodcut, serigraph, collagraph and lithograph. Styles of artistis expression range from representational to purely abstract, and new experimental print-making techniques throughout lend brilliant color to the exhibition.

Every print shown has been executed within the last three years. Thus the exhibition reflects the current directions of the exhibiting artists, who include such well-known printmakers as Ernest Freed, Doris Meyer, Karl Kasten and Beth Van Hoesen of California, and Minna Citron of New York, Vera Burdich of Chicago and Robert Berg, who has his studio in Paris, France.

The California Society of Etchers is one of the oldest organizations of graphic artists in the country. Founded in San Francisco in 1914, it has contributed greatly over the years to the development of interest in printmaking in this area. Today San Francisco is known for its print collections of national importance, as well as for the vitality of its local artist-printmaker community.

Through its high standards the California Society of Etchers has grown to national standing. With now less than half representation from California, it brings together in its membership distinguished printmakers from all over the United States, working in all media and method of expression, as shown in this exhibition of their work.

As a supplement to the exhibition, displays are presented which illustrate some of the basic processes of printmaking. Plates, stones, blocks and other materials are shown to explain the contemporary techniques of woodcut, lithography and the various kinds of intaglio printing.

The exhibition is accompanied by a brochure with forward by George D. Culler, Director of the San Francisco Museum of Art. On Sunday, August 28, at 3 p.m., a special tour of the gallery will be conducted by Anneliese Hoyer, Curator of Prints. Prints by members of the California Society of Etchers will remain on view at the San Francisco Museum of Art, Civic Center, through September 25, admission free.

The father of one of the girls went to the Hills, off Scenic way, and said he saw the man but by the time he drove up to the top the man was gone.

The suspect is described as about 23, wearing a charcoal grey sport coat, charcoal trousers and a white shirt. He also is said to have a "duck tail" haircut.

Fond farewells were said to Girl Scout leader, Mrs. Martha Dignam, at a surprise-going away party at the home of Mrs. Mil Kraus who acted as co-hostess with Mrs. Georgia Solari, August 4.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Clifford Dignam and their three children are moving to Sacramento by the first of September and will establish their home in the capitol city. Mr. Dignam, a Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company employee, will transfer to the new company offices in Sacramento.

Among the very first Girl Scouts of the Daly City area, Mrs. Dignam has been very active in recent years both as a leader and Day Camp Director. Daughter Claire is a Girl Scout also.

The 17 Girl Scout friends and leaders who attended the party, presented Mrs. Dignam with gifts of a modern pole lamp and electric can opener-sharpener gadget.

Mrs. Yasko was transported to Community Hospital where a 72-hour hold was placed by Officer Jim Bergstrom.

Hot Houses 'Cooled' By Malicious Window Breakers

George Schenone, 255 Pierce street, notified police that 20 windows, 16 by 18 inches, had been broken at his hot houses on Sullivan avenue and Pierce street last Tuesday evening.

Estimated damage was $60. Officer Art Linhares said juveniles had apparently taken pipe from an apartment house under construction near the site, and used it to smash the windows.

The groves of Bishop pine, found in the vicinity of Inverness and Shell Beach in Tomales Bay State Park, are described as "botanical islands," believed by botanists to be survivors of the Ice Age.

VA Answers Queries That Concern Veteran

Q—I see that World War Two veterans have just been given another two years in which to get a GI loan, and that at the same time VA was given new authority to make direct loans. What is the direct loan program?

A—It is a much smaller program than VA's loan guaranty program. Direct loans are made only to veterans who live in certain rural and small town areas where GI loans are not obtainable from local lenders. Eligible veterans apply directly to VA.

Q—Does the VA in Washington, D. C., have a list of all courses approved for veterans under the Korean GI Bill?

A—No. Each regional office maintains a list of State-approved courses for veterans under the Korean GI Bill. To get the information, contact your VA regional office, and not VA headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Q—I am a Korea veteran, discharged in 1956, and have a disability which VA has just rated service-connected. What is my deadline for finishing vocational rehabilitation training under Public Law 894?

A—Your deadline is January 31, 1964, or nine years after separation, whichever comes first. There are exceptions to this deadline for certain veterans, but apparently they do not apply to you.

Q—I understand that special restorative training is available under the War Orphans Education program to handicapped young men and women in need of it. Does this restorative training include medical care?

A — No. Special restorative training does not include medical care. It does include special courses—such as braille reading, language retraining and the like—designed to help a person overcome his handicap so that eventually he can take regular training at school.

Ninety Percent Of Population Socially Secured

August 14, 1960, twenty-five years after the original Social Security Act became law, over 14 million men, women, and children are receiving monthly old-age survivors, and disability insurance benefit checks totalling $900 million a month.

Marking the twenty-fifth anniversary of the signing of the original Social Security Act by President Roosevelt on August 14, 1935, Mrs. Mercia Leton Kahn, district manager of the San Francisco (Mission) social security office at 761 South Van Ness avenue, noted that 25 years ago about half of all persons aged 65 or over were mainly or wholly dependent on relatives and friends. Today, over 72 per cent of a much larger aged population are either drawing old-age and survivors insurance benefits, or will be eligible to draw them when the worker retires.

Originally designed to provide only old-age insurance benefits for workers in commerce and industry, these provisions of the social security program have been expanded and improved over the years. About 9 out of 10 workers in the United States, almost the entire gainfully employed population, work in employment or self-employment covered by social security.

Through this work, they are building protection for themselves and their dependents in their old-age, and for their families in case of their death.

Under amendments to the law, enacted in 1954, 1956 and 1958, they are also earning protection for themselves and families in the event of their permanent and total disability.

"Although social security has become firmly associated with the idea of old age," Mrs. Kahn said, "the survivors and disability provisions of the law are a bulwark of protection for American families." To illustrate, she pointed out that 1.5 million of the estimated 2 million fatherless children in the Nation are now receiving monthly survivors insurance benefits under the Social Security Act.

Ninety per cent of the mothers and children in the country are eligible for these benefits should the head of the family die. Close to a half million disabled workers and their families are now receiving monthly disability insurance benefits and more than 43 million workers are insured for the payment of these benefits in the event that they should become severely and permanently disabled.

"Congress has periodically increased the amount of old-age, survivors, and disability insurance benefits to keep pace with higher earning levels and rising living costs," Mrs. Kahn said.

The average old-age benefit paid in 1940, the year when benefits became payable, was $22.10. The average retirement benefit payable to those who have become entitled to payments during the past 20 years is $68.30. However, the average benefit being awarded to persons retiring now, who have worked during recent years and have had a higher earning level, is about $83.

United Crusade Goal Increased For County's Fall Campaign

Kermit L. Williams, 1960 campaign chairman for the United Crusade of San Mateo County, has reported to the Campaign Cabinet that San Mateo County will have a total goal of $670,776 in the fall campaign.

The new goal represents San Mateo County's share of an $11,250,000 goal established for the five county United Bay Crusade and is almost an 11 per cent increase over the 1959 goal of $608,811.

Williams reported that goals throughout the Bay Area have been increased to help meet increased needs and operation of member agencies. There are 263 health, welfare and youth agencies in UBAC, including 29 in San Mateo County.

The campaign chairman praised the 100 per cent turn-out of division chairmen for the opening planning meeting of the 1960 campaign. He noted that enthusiasm of the division leaders has brought recruitment of volunteers to more than the 50 per cent mark. The recruitment promises an all-out effort to equal, or better, last year's accomplishment of 100.1 per cent of goal.

Plans for a Bay Area kick-off on September 19 were announced by Donald M. Galbraith, Public Relations chairman.

Detail divisional reports were made by Wallace R. Finney, chairman for Advance Gifts; Mrs. Donald Allen, County-wide chairman for the Residential Division; Mrs. Thomas West, north county, Residential; Mrs. Charles McFarland, central county, Residential; Mrs. Joseph F. Ex-Jefferson Ba... Player Begins Pilot Training

Aviation Cadet John A. Long, son of John G. Long, 228 Los Olivos avenue, Daly City, has begun basic pilot training at Reese Air Force Base, Texas, according to Master Sergeant Phil L. Wells, the local Air Force Recruiter.

Cadet Long is a 1956 graduate of Jefferson Union High School. He will be remembered as an outstanding basketball player, having played on Jefferson's teams four years.

Cadet Long applied for the Air Force Pilot program at 2865 Mission Street, the local Air Force Recruiting Office. After successfully completing the preliminary tests he was sent to primary pilot training at Spence Air Base, Georgia, where he learned fundamentals of military flying. At his new assignment at Reese Air Force Base he will receive 115 hours of flying in the T-33 jet aircraft, in addition to instruction on military and academic subjects. Upon graduation, in November, he will become a pilot in the Air Force's Aerospace Force.

COUNTY TO BE PART OF $926 MILLION RAPID TRANSIT PLAN

Directors of the five-county Bay Area Rapid Transit District have tentatively approved a $926,000,000 plan for a regional rapid transit system to serve five counties around San Francisco Bay.

They ordered the plan submitted for study and recommendations to the officials of every county and city in the District to comply with the last legal requirement before a final plan can be adopted.

As approved following several weeks of study and discussion, the tentative plan includes $909,000,000 for approximately 100 miles of first-stage construction and $17,000,000 for advance purchase of rights-of-way beyond the initial termini.

Key link in the system is the four-mile trans-Bay underwater rapid transit tube connecting the subway complexes in downtown San Francisco and downtown Oakland.

From San Francisco, first-stage construction would extend north across the Golden Gate Bridge to a terminus at Santa Venetia in Marin County and south along the Peninsula to a terminus at Redwood City in San Mateo County.

From Oakland, first-stage lines would radiate north through Berkeley to El Cerrito in western Contra Costa County, east to Pleasant Hill in central Contra Costa and south to Hayward in Alameda County.

An additional 30 miles of rights-of-way would be purchased beyond these termini to facilitate second-stage construction. These purchases would extend the initial lines to Novato in Marin County, downtown Richmond in western Contra Costa, downtown Concord in central Contra Costa, central Fremont in southern Alameda County and to the San Mateo-Santa Clara County line.

Operating on the proposed system would virtually noiseless trains of aluminum or lightweight stainless steel, which would be controlled from a central electronic "brain." Average schedule speeds for the system would be 45 miles an hour, nearly twice as fast as any existing transit system, and headways as close as 90 seconds are provided for during peak

General Manager John M. Peirce said the tentative plan would be submitted to the various public agencies about September 1 with a request that recommendations be submitted to the District by December 1. After these recommendations by the boards of supervisors of all five member counties before it can be submitted to the electorate.

VA ANNOUNCES

Some Veterans' Widows Eligible For More Money

Some veterans' widows receiving dependency and indemnity compensation may be entitled to receive higher payments as the result of a recently enacted law, it was announced today by Glenn Corbitt, Manager of VA's Northern California Regional Office.

The amount of dependency and indemnity compensation is now based in part on the rank of the deceased veteran at the time of his separation from service.

The new law, known as Public Law 86-492, allows the widow to receive payments based on a higher rank, provided the veteran satisfactorily held the higher rank for at least six months and was holding it within 120 days of the date of his death, or separation from active service.

The VA lacks the necessary information to identify these eligible widows. Widows whose husbands at one time held a rank higher than their rank at separation, under the above conditions, should contact the nearest VA office.

BLIND PERSONS SOMETIMES CHOOSE OWN "VOTING EYES"

At least twenty-eight states allow blind voters to choose who shall assist them as "voting eyes" on election day, it is reported by the American Foundation for the Blind.

GI Insurance Policy Holders Should Check Beneficiaries

Sad cases continue to come to light in the matter of outdated beneficiaries to GI insurance benefits, San Mateo County Veterans' Service Officer, Floyd D. Granger, reported today.

Despite repeated reminders and suggestions from his office, and from both Federal and State veterans' agencies, too many veterans "just never get around" to listing the proper beneficiaries to their GI policies.

The regrettable result, all too often, is that the veteran's wife and family cannot collect the proceeds of his GI insurance in the event of his death. Why not? Simply because some years before, he designated beneficiaries who at the time were those he wanted to get his insurance money. But that was before he married, or before he was divorced, or before he had children.

For example: A veteran may have divorced and subsequently remarried. But his ex-wife still is listed on his policy as the principal beneficiary. Unless the veteran had instructed the Veterans Administration Insurance Center, to change the beneficiary to the name of his present wife, she can collect nothing from his insurance. The former wife receives it, as the beneficiary of record.

Or possibly the veteran was unmarried when he last designated his beneficiaries. He listed a parent or a relative or friend as the principal beneficiary. Then he married, but neglected to ask the VA to make his wife the beneficiary. Again, when he dies, his wife collects nothing.

The law requires the VA to pay GI insurance proceeds to the beneficiary of record, whether or not that beneficiary still is in any way connected with the veteran at the time of his death. Changes by will or testament are not valid under the law.

A very simple step on the part of the veteran can avert these tragic situations, the service officer states. He need only write to the VA Insurance Center and submit a new list of beneficiaries over his signature. The proper form is obtainable at the San Mateo County Veterans' Service Office at the Courthouse in Redwood City.

Dave Friedenberg Heads 'Dollars For Democrats'

This year's Dollars for Democrats drive on September 15, 16 and 17 will be coordinated in the north San Mateo county area by David Friedenberg of Daly City, one of the three county drive co-chairmen recently named by Daniel Monaco, chairman of the Democratic county central committee.

Friedenberg, president of the county council of Democratic clubs, will cover the area from the north county line south through San Bruno, including Pacifica. Other county drive co-chairmen are Robert Hansen of Burlingame and Emil (Al) Holgerson of Half Moon Bay.

Northern area town drive chairmen announced by Friedenberg include John Romano, San Bruno; Mrs. Dan McNamara, Pacifica; Peter Marozine, South San Francisco; Lawrence Freiberg, assisted by Mrs. Paul Majourau, Daly City and Colma; and Larry Weitzer, Brisbane.

Honorary county co-chairmen named by the Democratic central committee are Dr. John Kaster of Hillsborough, last year's county drive chairman, and William Gately with Robert Hardgrove of San Mateo as honorary assembly district chairman for the 25th.

Friedenberg reported that northern California drive leaders have already served notice that San Mateo county Democrats can expect keen competition for the top county award this year which they won both in 1958 and 1959. He explained that each county keeps one-third of its total collections; a third goes to the national party organization, and the county with highest total collections is allowed to retain the third usually going to the State group.

The American Heritage Foundation and the Advertising Council are cooperating again this election year, as in 1958, it was pointed out, through a nation-wide non-partisan campaign to encourage all Americans to give to the political party of their choice as a vital and necessary act of good citizenship in a democracy.

"The door-to-door canvass through the Dollars drive," commented Friedenberg, "makes it possible for every Democrat to take part in the Foundation's program, urging all eligible voters to register, work and give for their chosen political party."

Frank Tardelli Extends Thanks To Daly City Voters

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to the many Daly City people who gave me so much help on the Callan Park election campaign.

I want to extend special thanks to the Executive Committee for their valuable time and advice, and to every one of the 879 members of the "Yes" on Callan Park Campaign Committee.

I also wish to thank the Daly City Record and the Westlake Times for their cooperation and support. Thanks also to the many Daly City people who—though they did not give their names—gave us valuable help throughout the campaign.

Let me express my appreciation to each and every person who voted Tuesday. Whether you voted "Yes" or "No," thank you for taking enough interest in Daly City to vote.

Finally, people are more important than issues, and I hope that personal animosities and frayed tempers generated by the campaign can all be forgotten with election day. We are all still neighbors and friends.

Sincerely,
Frank M. Tardelli

North San Mateo County YWCA Offers Varied Dance Classes

For the first time in her life, a 13-year-old Colma girl recently attended a social dancing party at the Westlake Recreation Center with some forty junior high school boys and girls. The youngsters had learned social dancing through a special class sponsored by the North San Mateo County YWCA, a United Crusade agency.

Paul Baumgartner, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Baumgartner of Colma, found the Y class a real experience. She especially praises the teachers who have conducted this class and a hula class which she took previously.

Paula knew she needed to know dancing in order to keep up with her age group. If she hadn't attended the class and its final party, she would have spent most of her summer riding a bike around the suburban streets, working at home alone, or taking care of a large assortment of animal pets.

Both of Paula's parents have also attended various classes which are part of the program initiated at the YW. The new skills they've acquired have helped knit them together as a family, according to Mrs. Baumgartner, "When there's nothing special to do, we'll just dance in our living room. Paula and I will do Hawaiian dances, or she and her dad will do social dancing."

"Life in the suburbs can get lonely," she continues, "and the Y gave us a valuable outlet for meeting new people and doing something outside the home."

Previously, residents of the Westlake and Daly City area had to go into downtown San Francisco to get classes of the type now offered locally by the YW. For Mrs. Baumgartner, this involved three changes on public transportation and more than an hour of travel each way. Many parents and their children could find no way of making the trip.

To help combat the loneliness problem for others, Mrs. Baumgartner served as chairman of a dinner-dance held by the YW last spring. More than 150 persons found a "night on the town" in the Westlake area and turned out for the occasion. They met many new people and especially enjoyed the occasion. As at most YW programs, mothers served as baby sitters during the event.

Today, the YW offers many classes, providing a nearby outlet for more than 650 suburban families. A neighbor of the Baumgartners has a youngster taking the tiny tot program, whereby little ones (ages 2-5) learn new skills and meet others of the same age. During the classes, mothers meet other mothers of like interests and also learn new techniques of child care.

Next fall, the YW will help meet the needs of some 1400 teenagers who will have free afternoons when the high school goes on double session. It is planning both a class and a club program.

From a parent's point of view, Mrs. Baumgartner sees the YW programs as a valuable part of the community life. "I like knowing that Paula is in an interesting class, working with a trained and experienced teacher. She learns from the classes, and it helps her relax."

Having taken several classes at the YW, Brs. Baumgartner has developed an interest in helping bring the program to others. She will serve this coming year as a member of the area committee, which is responsible for planning class and club programs.

Trying to keep up with the needs of the rapidly expanding community, the North San Mateo County YWCA is one of the fastest growing United Crusade agencies in San Mateo County. It maintains a small office at the Westlake Shopping Center, 375 South Mayfair avenue, PLaza 6-7370.

BRAKES AND SPEED

That brakes, more than engines, account for the difference in the speed of two automobiles in any average journey through traffic is a point that eludes many a motorist, according to the National Automobile Club.

Being able to stop quickly and surely is quite as important to making good time as the ability to accelerate rapidly and to hold a high speed easily.

Recreation Dept. To Hold Annual 'Round-Up,' Show

This Thursday, the Daly City Recreation Department will hold its annual Recreation Round-up.

This event, featuring a talent show for the children of the community, will begin at 8 p.m. at the War Memorial Community Center. This talent show has always been one of the high spots of the year for the many talented youngsters of Daly City.

This year's show, with Bud Sherwood as Master of Ceremonies, promises to reveal many new and bright stars and starlets.

According to Mrs. Ruth Galindo, director of this year's show, there will be a huge variety of acts, running from musical instruments to drama. Try not to miss this "really really big show." The doors will open at 7:15 p.m., so get there in time to get a good seat before the curtain goes up.

Further information on this event may be obtained by calling the Daly City Recreation Department, PL 5-0850, extension 18, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

LITTLE LEAP

... OVER A BIG BOULDER

With Lou Lucia

Without a doubt, two of the most distinguished handwritings we've seen belong to police Officer Al Nicolini and Jefferson High School District Trustee Elio Fontana. Both are undistinguishable but very flourishable.

There's only one person who writes worse — yours truly. I've got stories I haven't even used yet—can't make out what was written.

However, the handwriting expert would give us a jolt. If you slant your letters to the right it means your pen is in your right hand. For a nominal fee he will also disclose to you that if the letters are slanted to the left you're a southpaw.

Large letters mean you used a big pen. Small letters mean you'd better sharpen the pencil. An "X" discloses that you did not have the benefit of a college education.

If your B's are fully formed, and robust as a bowling ball, it means you are a rotund person. If your "L's" are lean as a used toothpick it shows that you don't give an "I" how you write.

A fully half-mooned C with a J on top shows that you're a member of the Communist party. Two Z's written sideways and up and down depict you as a Nazi. I always use plenty of astericks and bars when my writing is analyzed and come out a full fledged American.

LARGE LETTERS MEAN THAT YOU ARE AN EXTROVERT. Small letters disclose that you're an introvert. I've been told that I'm an extrovert four times and an introvert four times. One time I made a mistake and all letters were exactly correct. The handwriting expert's mouth split from ear to ear and his eyes lit up like two flashbulbs exploding. He said, "Ah! I must have died and gone to heaven."

I told him that whatever he was thinking was wrong, as the reason for the beard was that I hadn't had time to shave, and I wasn't who he thought I was.

Everyone recalls those young kindergarten and first grade years when you made tornado marks across instead of up and down. The Palmer Method, you know. If my first grade teacher would look at my handwriting now she would still say my scrawling looks like a tornado.

They say, "The pen is mightier than the sword." This is true. After looking at my handwriting the second grade teacher exclaimed, "I think I'll kill myself."

A Chinese philosopher named Mi Pen Naim once sayeth, "He who write in smear is all blotched up."

FOOTBALL SEASON comes to Jefferson High in the not too distant future and Coach Joe McGrath must be wondering where he'll find a lineman good enough to take up the slack left by the graduation of Bob Nielson. Nielson was a second team All Peninsula League choice, performing as guard and fullback on offense and as a defensive linebacker. The Indians meet Hillsade on October 14 in the grid opener.

DENNIS BROOKS OUTSTANDING; FIRES HIGH SCRATCH GAME AT WESTLAKE BOWL'S MATCH

Last Thursday, the First Annual Junior Singles and Doubles House Championship Tournament got underway with a first day success.

More than 40 bowlers turned out for the competition. When the first squad of doubles wound up their last game, an individual high scratch game was bowled by 14-year-old Dennis Brooks, a youngster who rolls big games when they really count. Dennis shot a leading 232 game. When the scores were added up Dennis was out in the first place spot with a 635, including handicap. Not too far behind Brooks was Glen Hilton with a 616.

In the Doubles action, Pete Pollat and Carl Steigerwald took an early lead with a total of 1164 pins knocked down. The high game for this team was a 211 by Pollat. When the second day of the tournament passed there were new leaders in both the singles and the doubles. Taking over the lead in the doubles was the team of Hilton and Pollat with 1217 pins down. Hilton shot a fantastic 157-190-215. This is 151 pins over his average of 137. His series was a tremendous 562. His partner, Pollat, rolled a 189-133-186 508 series.

The new leader in the singles after the second day is Bob Morrison. Bob startled everyone with a 234 game to surge way out in front of the second place Brooks. He now has a score of 681, with handicap. The very promising Marg Clark of the Junior Girls league is staying right in the running. She stands in the number six spot in the singles event.

With three more weeks of competition left in the tournament even the present high game of 234 will no doubt be bettered.

In match game action last week, a highly skilled team of juniors from Castle Lanes plowed into a rather loggy team of Westlakers and went home winners by a husky margin of 85 pins for the three games. In the first game it was Westlake all the way as they shot an 820 to go ahead by 17 pins.

In the second and third games the steady and smooth L & L keglers showed their heels as they went out in front to stay. The match was a little unique because both teams were bowling with one of their best house Junior girls. Both gals shot very well. High for the Westlake team was Bob Morrison, who posted a 148-153-204 for a 505 series. Jim Peterson was not only high for his team but high for the entire match. Jim slammed out games of 179-145-224 for a high 559 series.

In the "Oldsters vs. youngsers" challenge match last Saturday, the youngsters were given a good lacing by their elders. After being dumped the week before by a red hot team of senior leaguers the oldsters were out for a win. The impromptu formed teams this last week saw Rich Brewer, again for the second straight week, take high series honors with a 559. Rich lacked his frequent 200 games but still had enough strikes and spares to stay ahead of the pack. Here's the way they fared:

"Oldsters"
Art Cooper	467
Bud Cowan	529
Rich Brewer	559
Bob Sexton	485
Ed Hargrove	452
Tom Cunningham	509
Al Dunbar	490
"Youngsters"
Bob Grout	436
Steve Hargrove	367
Phil Hargrove	507
Steve Gordon	466
Bob Doyle	415
Bob Cowan	486
Jim Fisher	434

Last weeks results from the regular leagues snow Joe Marasco of the Senior Boys league topping the league with a whopping 554 series. His games were 145-211-198. Not far behind Joe was Pete Pollat with 206-182-148, 536. Steve Funai was third with a 520 series. In the Junior league action for the week, high game was rolled by Bob Grout. He had a 213 and a 504 series. High series honors were taken by Bob Doyle, a 12-year-old who shatters the wood as if he were six feet tall instead of only 4' 9". His series was 534 for the three games.

In the Junior Girls league, the talk of the day was Mary Ann Crabb's gigantic 189 game. Mary Ann has been bowling only a short while and is new to the bowl's junior leagues. She had four strikes in a row in that high game.

High series for the league was held by Pat Marks with 466. She was followed by Marg Clark with 459 and the up and coming Pam Witt with 454. This is Pam's first 450 series.

Timber was falling as the bantams ripped into the wood for high scores for the second straight week. Bob Landucci was king of the hill with his 346 high series. This places him in third place in the all time high series group of select bowlers. His games were 197-149 for the two game series. Also breaking the 300 series mark was Rick Giorgetti who posted a 301 series.

Some of the other outstanding series for the week were Dennis Macango, 205; John Barsotti, 270; Kent Grealish, 271; Judy Oliva, 276; Don Figini, 258; Steve Shea, 266; Tom diLustro, 285; Billy Kitchen, 272; Bob Bias, 282; Stu Scott, 269; and Don Costello, 247.

Mass Destruction Derby Set For SC County Fair

One hundred old cars will be demolished in a mass destruction derby on Sunday afternoon, September 18, as a highlight of entertainment at this year's Santa Clara County Fair.

Action in the first 100-car destruction derby ever staged in Central California will be in front of the covered, 5000-seat grandstands at the fairgrounds race track.

Bob Barkhimer, northern California racing and special events promoter, said there will be 25 teams, 4 cars per team, competing for a $1000 purse. Team represented by the last car running will get $600. Second place purse is $300, third place $100. A 2:30 p.m. starting time has been set.

Each team must have an official sponsor and special trophies will be presented to the sponsors of the three winning teams.

The destruction event will be run off in four 15-minute periods, with intervals between so that drivers can attempt to get stalled machines going again. The fourth period continues until all but one car has stopped.

Because of the limit on entries, teams of four drivers and cars only will be accepted on a first-come-first-in basis. Information and entry forms are available from Bob Barkhimer Associates, 2032 North Pacific avenue, Santa Cruz.

Similar automobile destruction events in northern California have attracted crowds up to 10,000 persons each, but no such destruction derby programs have been attempted in the San Jose area or Central California, Barkhimer said.

ZING WENT THE STRINGS: Australian tennis experts have a tenacious hold on the Davis Cup title. They've won the cup 8 times in the last 10 years. Prior to that it was all U.S., as our men won 13 times while the Aussies gained but 8 championships. Think they're just stringing us along?

NEW WAY OF KILLING FISH: Recommended for the humane society award is Rick Warne, Jeff High Coach. Seems as though there was a paved highway next to where Rick was fishing. He'd pull back on the reel with all his might and the line would swing in back of him. A passing auto just missed "bumpering" off a fish and a second car's driver almost caught a finned demon through his open window. Anyway, killing flying fish with cars is much better than hitting them over the head.

THUD! GOES THE BAT: Larry Nissom, former City College of San Francisco baseball pitcher who currently works for the Daly City Recreation Department, was overheard telling an umpire that "when I'm pitching I don't hear anything (meaning the taunts from the opposition's bench)". He must surely hear the crack of the bat as his "silent submarine" ball may not be heard but can certainly be seen. Larry's currently mowing them down in Sunday semi-pro ball and all the "noise" here is just a joke.

SOFTBALLERS MOURN DEATH: Consolidated Schools adult softballers barely made it into the Daly City Recreation's playoffs following the death of star first baseman Brad Biddleman, 22. Biddleman was killed in a boat accident which occurred the week-end of July 16-17. Consolidated Schools tied the Recreation Department for fourth place and a play-off berth.

THAT'S A LONG TIME: Chris Burford, Stanford end of last Fall and Dallas Texans pro standout, played in two full games last year to bring the total of Indians who have played entire games to 10. However, former flash quarterback Bobby Garrett accounted for half them in 1953. He played five full grueling games.

DER FOOTBALL VUNDERFUL: Speaking to a German gal, just four months in this country, we asked what the most popular sport was in the Rhineland. Without hesitation, she replied, "football." No doubt the American service men have turned the "goose step" into the "Grid kick." We were assured that she wasn't confusing rugby with football, in case there was any doubt in your mind.

VERDUCCI IN NEED: San Francisco State footballers will be hard pressed to pull another Far Western Conference championship out of the hat this Fall. The Gators lose graduates Jim Sochor, quarterback who completed 50 per cent of his passes during four years of college ball, and fullback Marshall. Halfbacks Charles (Tornado) Fuller and Edgar (The Bomb) Rollins will be back along with diminutive Jesse Racines but the Gators will need a strong quarterback. Could it be either sophomore Dennis O'Keefe or junior Bill Baird? Coach Joe Verducci will have to find out very quickly, before September 16, date of the opening tilt.

DRUGS, SARTO TO VIE FOR LOOP CROWN

The Department of Parks and Recreation's Adult Softball League O'Shaughnessy Playoffs were won by Sarto A.C. The playoff title forces an additional game between league winner Daly City Drugs and Sarto A.C.

Sarto's entered the finals last week with a 10-9 decision over the Recreation Department. Mickey Corso's three-run homer and Tom Fillipo's three-run triple were the deciding blows for the winners. Although the Recreation Department outhit Sarto's, 15-7, the winners were able to deliver in the clutch.

Wayne Clay twirled a neat two-hitter to defeat the Daly City Drugs, 6-0, in the playoff finals. Owen Kashaveroff's two-run triple and Dean Pringle's two-run double were the big Sarto hits. Sarto capitalized on six Drug errors and were able to gather only three hits themselves.

Hike, Skating Party Scheduled For This Friday

On August 12, the Daly City Recreation Department held a "Hike to the Crocker Hills" outing for the boys and girls living on the east side of Junipero Serra boulevard and a roller skating party for those children living on the west side of Junipero Serra.

The hike into the Crocker hills was enhanced by sunny weather which made for a better than usual outing. The boys and girls enjoyed such activities as a picnic in the eucalyptus groves, a nature hunt, and games of steal-the-flag.

The roller skating outing, held at Skateland, was a very successful event with more than 200 Daly City children attending. After rollerskating for two hours, the children enjoyed themselves at the concessions at Playland.

On Friday, August 19, the children living on the east side of Junipero Serra boulevard will attend Skateland while the children living on the west side will travel to an outing at Junipero Serra Park in San Bruno. Further information regarding either of these outings may be obtained by calling PL 5-0850, extension 18, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Budea Continues Fine Pitching For Misrack's A's

The BYA Flying "A" Athletics won their fourth game in as many starts in the Department of Parks & Recreation's Summer Midget League, National Division.

The Flying "A" club handed San Pedro Lunch its second consecutive loss, 5-3. The Athletics rallied for five runs on four hits in the fourth inning, featured by John Heick's leadoff homerun. Winning pitcher Ron Stefani had near perfect control as he walked only one man.

The Misracks A's evened their record at 2-2 with a 4-0 shut-out of Tower Market. Nick "no-hit" Budea struck out nine "Marketmen" and allowed only one hit. Tower Market did not get their one hit until the last inning which gave Budea 11 consecutive innings of no-hit ball.

Because of a change of managers, the PAL Red Sox forfeited to Parkmerced.

Tringali Hurls No Hitter For DC Merchants

The Daly City Merchants' Dominic Tringali pitched a 2-0 no-hit, no-run game against Parkmerced in last week's action in the Department of Parks and Recreation's Summer Junior League.

The Merchants were only able to get two hits off the combined pitching of Grayden and Frost of Parkmerced.

New Pisa remained in undisputed possession of first place as they won their fourth consecutive game by shellacking BYA, 18-2. Sinclair led New Pisa with four hits in five trips to the plate.

By mutual consent, the game between Art Colvin BYA (2-0) and the OLM Gaels (2-1) was postponed to a later date.

'No Tap Sweeps' New Inovation At W'lake Bowl

The legions of bowlers who cry foul at the seemingly vast number of "tap" rolls where they get nine pins on a roll should be delighted with Johnny Swanson's new "No Tap Sweeps" that started Sunday at Westlake Bowl and will be a new Sunday feature.

Swanson reports the first day was a success and that when word gets around about the fun tournament the entries will be high.

The mechanics are simple. Every first ball that picks up nine pins counts as a strike.

Entry fee is $3.50 of which half goes into the pot which is divided as follows: 40% for 1st place; 30%, 2nd; 20% 3rd; and 10% for fourth.

Handicap is 2/3 of 200 with a maximum of 100 points.

Last week Charlie Brusco rolled nine strikes in a row and then hit the pocket with a flat ball leaving the 5-10. We didn't know southpaws could throw a flat ball, but have to take Charlie's word for it.

He was bowling for Mount Davidson Garage in the 500 Petersen Point Trios.

A Sunday morning Fathers and Sons League will kick-off September 11. The dads and lads will bowl at 9:30 a.m. Entries are being taken now at the desk at Westlake Bowl.

Tickets are available for the "Shadow Ball" in the Gold Room of the Sheraton-Palace, September 17, from any Westlake employee. The dance will be under the auspices of the San Francisco Bowling Proprietors Association and tickets are going for $5 per couple.

Starkovich Leads BYA Tigers On Mound, With Bat

One team remained undefeated after the fourth week of play in the American Division of the Department of Parks and Recreation's Summer Midget League.

The BYA Tigers raised their record to 3-0 with a 1-0 decision over a stubborn PAL Yankee team. Winning pitcher Jeff Starkovich helped his own cause by driving in the winning run with a last inning triple. Starkovich struck out seven and walked two enroute to his one-hit shutout.

Art Colvin BYA knocked Holy Angels out of the unbeaten ranks by a score of 6-2. Pitcher Don Burdick allowed only three Holy Angels hits and catcher Guy Kubowitz turned in an outstanding defensive game.

Two New Players Impress West 20-30 Mentors

Two players who were added to the West team to replace others who could not participate in the 20-30 Club prep all-star football game continue to impress coaches Bob Berry and Bill Feiling in practice here.

Charlie Peters, a 190-pound tackle from Buchser High School in Santa Clara, will see lots of action in Saturday's game, according to Feiling.

"I like the way he gets across the line of scrimmage," Feiling said after watching Peters in a scrimmage session.

Peters was added to the squad Saturday as a replacement for fullback Bob Daugherty of Mountain View. Daugherty withdrew from the West team to report to New Mexico Military Institute where he will attend school next month.

The other late sparkler is halfback John Browne of Capuchino. He has impressed coaches on both offense and defense and will be one of five players who will go both ways against the East.

The others are quarterbacks Ron Calcagno of St. Ignatius and Bob Berry Jr. of Willow Glen, tackle Kent Francisco of San Rafael, and halfback Tom Piggee of Poly.

Feiling said, "There may be several others, too, we will use the best players we have for as long as we can."

Browne and center Joe Sparaco of San Jose are expected to share place-kicking duties for the West.

John Shenk of Lick-Wilmerding and Berry have looked the best in the punting department.

Officials for Saturday's game will be referee Lou Vasquez, field judge Mike Orlich, umpire Alex Schwartz, back judge Will Mederios, and head linesman Hal Fox.

All are donating their services for the game that will benefit Bay Area charity.

Tickets for the game are on sale at Darcy's in San Mateo, Elligsion's in Hillsdale, Ed's Smoke Shop in San Carlos, Plaza Toys in Woodside, Down's Sport Shop in Redwood City, and Carroll and Bishop in San Jose.

BYA FLYING A, HUGHE'S NINE CLASH BATS

BYA Westlake Flying A and Hughe's Texaco, co-holders of the top spot in the Midget American League, will meet this Thursday at Westlake Park in a tilt to see which is defeated for the first time. Both have identical 4-0 records.

The BYA Flying A Athletics won a hard fought, come from behind 5-3 victory, last week with the hapless San Pedro Lunch nine the losers. Ron Stefani's control pitching—he allowed but one walk—was instrumental in the win. With the exception of a bad fourth inning, Jerry Benson pitched well for the defeated team.

San Pedro, former co-favorites for the championship, jumped to a 2-0 lead with single runs in the third and fourth innings. BYA, however, turned the tide in the bottom of the fourth. A five run rally was touched off by John Heick's lead off home run.

Two errors, a walk, and singles by Randy Storbo, Stefani and Lee Williams accounted for the other four runs. San Pedro's third run in the last frame served only to narrow the gap.

Blind children have been successfully integrated into regular public school programs since 1900, according to the American Foundation for the Blind.

HEY SKIPPER! Far horizons may be to portside, but all the fish that Daly City kids are trying to catch are to the starboard side. The young "Captain" seems unaware that some of the 140 youngsters are gazing into the Lake Merced waters with hopes of bagging the big one that didn't get away. The fishing day was a joint cooperation venture staged by the Daly City Parks and Recreation Department and the Daly City-Colma Lions Club.
